

Overview of EEG 2 During Budget 2024, the Government announced that the Energy Efficiency Grant (EEG) will be expanded to the construction sector. EEG aims to support construction firms in their

How does an energy consultant get paid? BGP.energy include a service fee which is built into the quoted unit rate, often referred to as an uplift, and specified before any contracts are agreed with our

The price of BGP cloud servers varies depending on the supplier and configuration. When purchasing a BGP cloud server, you should consider your configuration requirements, bandwidth and traffic, data

With our full range of energy-saving measures and expert advice, you'll have the tools to make the best decisions for your business. Plus, we always disclose our remuneration and never invoice for our

In the previous blog post in this series, I described why it's (almost) impossible to implement unequal-cost multipathing for anycast services (multiple servers advertising the same IP

The Energy Market experts The current business "Energy Market", is full of difficult to understand and complex costings, which require real expertise. Enter Georgina from BGP. She

Web: <https://www.thebuelectronics.co.za>

Chat

online:

<https://tawk.to/chat/667676879d7f358570d23f9d/1i0vbu11i?web=https://www.thebuelectronics.co.za>